Adebayo Olowofoyeku
Full Stack Developer

Hardworking, self-motivated, and responsible, with an outgoing personality. Enjoys meeting new challenges and seeing them through to completion, while remaining confident under pressure. An individual who adapts well to new situations and has consistently worked effectively as a team member and team leader as the need may arise. Patient, respectful with good customer service skills and other soft skills necessary in a work environment, allowing me to deal with more difficult people and get along effectively with all.
